

A SERIES OF TALKS FOLLOWED BY A TRADITIONAL DEVONSHIRE CREAM TEA

HISTORIC DEVON 23 MAY 2.00 pm

IRENE ANDREWS AND GARY KNAGGS

Find out how to research Devon's history at the North Devon Record Office, Barnstaple, and the Devon Heritage Centre, Exeter. An introduction to sources and documents for local and family history.

FROM ILFRACOMBE TO CHINA 21 AUGUST 2.00 pm

JANET TALL

Discover how a North Devon man survived life in a Second World War prisoner-of-war camp in China. Lewis Burfitt from Ilfracombe kept a detailed diary recording his experiences, which is now cared for at the North Devon Record Office.

EVERYONE HAS A STORY: PRESERVING YOUR FAMILY DOCUMENTS AT HOME 10 OCTOBER 2.00 pm

DEBORAH PHILLIPS

A hands-on opportunity to see how to care for the family documents and photographs that you have at home. Find out how documents can deteriorate and the practical steps that you can take to ensure a longer life for your precious items.

A handbook of helpful information and a selection of archival quality packaging materials will be available for purchase.

BOOKING IS ESSENTIAL AS NUMBERS ARE LIMITED. TICKETS ARE £5 PER PERSON.

Please contact Gary Knaggs at the North Devon Record Office to book a place.
Tel: 01271 318795 or email: northdevon@swheritage.org.uk

VENUE:
NORTH DEVON
RECORD OFFICE
EX31 1EL